NEWS @ AGJS

Issue 21: Friday 16th March 2018

@agjsschool

Another busy week in school this week which began with a Stone Age Workshop for our Year 3 children and finished with World Book Day, a Cake Sale and a Recycling Day for Lime class. This year the World Book Day focus is on 'Sharing a Book' and our assembly this morning looked at all the different ways in which we can share stories and who we can share them with.

On Monday and Tuesday next week, we have a Pentathlon event in school for all of our children, so please ensure PE kits are in school on both these days.

Please can I ask that you check you are receiving Parentmail updates - we are using this form of communication more regularly. If you think there is an issue, please do pop in and speak to Mrs Bradd, and she will do her best to get you back up and running!

With many thanks for your continued support,

Mrs Johnson, Deputy Head Teacher
