NEWS @ AGJS

Issue 31: Friday 22nd June 2018

@agjsschool

We have had a great time this week at the Year 3, 4 and 5 discos and Year 4 children really enjoyed their trip to Colchester Zoo. The choir were also amazing at the Havering Music Festival on Monday. Year 6 are now fully first aid trained and busy rehearsing for their End of Year production. Please do help with learning lines if you can.

This coming week is just as busy because we have our Talent show final on Tuesday evening at 7 pm. Tickets are available via the school office - please do get yours soon. It promises to be a very entertaining evening!

Next Saturday, 30th June, is our Summer Fair. The PA have informed me that we are very short of helpers. Please do contact the PA or school if you are able to help in any way. No amount is too small - even half an hour is useful! If you are not able to help, do come along and join us and keep your fingers crossed that the weather is kind.

You may also have heard that Mr Morris is a Grandad again! Baby Tommy George was born on Monday.

With many thanks for your continued support, Mrs Johnson, Deputy Head
