NEWS @ AGJS

Issue 8: Friday 9th November 2018

@agjsschool

On Monday, Andy Day, best known for his work with CBBC, will be visiting school with a group of musicians to promote the work of the Anti-Bullying Alliance, a national charity which seeks to raise the importance of respect and tolerance amongst adults and children by promoting the importance of anti-bullying in schools and the work place.

Andy with his band, Odd Socks will be leading our assembly which will launch National Anti-Bullying Week celebrated in schools nationally, which this year has the theme of, "We chose Respect." The assembly will also provide the charity with the opportunity to have some promotional photographs taken to support their work and have asked if staff and children can come to school wearing odd socks! Children will come to assembly in their socks and then the fun will begin!

Don't forget, also, that Friday 16th November is Children in Need and children can come to school in non-uniform

With many thanks for your continued support, Mr Morris and Mrs Johnson

P.S. Don't forget to sign up for our School App!
